BIOGRAPHY

Raufman is a Tel Aviv-based DJ and producer whose sound blends groove-driven House and Indie Dance with melodic textures and a strong focus on dancefloor energy. His productions and sets are built around infectious rhythms, organic elements, and timeless grooves, earning support from artists such as JØRD, Dor Danino, Notre Dame, Mary Jane, and Omri.

With a rich background in the music industry, millions of views on his melodies, and a presence across stadiums and radio, Raufman brings a wealth of musical experience to his evolving sound.

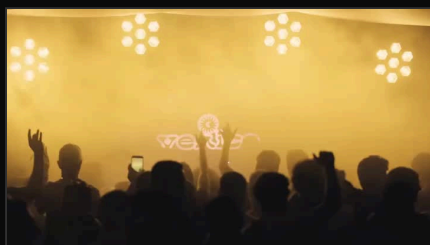

A defining element of Raufman's musical identity is his signature incorporation of live saxophone into his DJ sets. Seamlessly blending live instrumentation with electronic grooves, he creates a dynamic and energetic experience that brings a unique dimension to his performances.

With a growing collection of unreleased productions, Raufman continues to develop a distinctive sound that combines groovy rhythms, melodic influences, and live musical expression, reflecting his evolving artistic identity.
